Sportsmen Debate Raising Cost Of Hunting Permits

Harrisburg, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Proposals to boost hunting license fees topped the jam-packed agenda of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's clubs today.

The federation opened a two-day meeting attended by several hundred delegates from scores of fish and game clubs throughout the state.

Last year, the sportsmen endorsed a move to increase resident hunting license fees from $2 to $3.65 and those for out-of-state hunters, from $15 to $25.

The federation is expected to re-affirm its 1948 stand as a means of expressing its views while the legislature is in session.

Secretary-Treasurer C. A. Mortimer, Honesdale, said the convention will devote the first day of business to panel action by separate game, fish, forestry and pure streams groups on 68 different resolutions submitted by local and regional clubs.

Gov. James H. Duff and Forest and Waters Secretary M. F. Drumm will speak to the federation tomorrow, shortly before delegates act on the resolutions as a whole.

Other speakers will be Ross L. Leffler, president of the State Game Commission, and Charles A. French, Jr., state fish commissioner.

Some of the resolutions up for action seek to:

- Ban an antlerless deer season this year in Pennsylvania.
- Establish a state bounty for crows.
- Open small game season on the Saturday nearest Nov. 1 instead of Nov. 1 as at present.
- Prohibit bear hunting during the deer season.
- Oppose any legislation which may call for Sunday hunting.
- Require the state to use selective cutting of timber on state-owned lands to retain food and cover for game.
- Oppose any movement to cut fishing violation fines.

Local Youths Are Arrested In Jamestown

Richard J. Watmuff, 22, of 203 Dartmouth street, and Richard H. Reist, 21, of Jackson street extension, are in the custody of the Jamestown police as the result of a hit-run accident yesterday at the intersection of Forest and Fisher avenues, in which Roger W. Blixt, 37, of Jamestown, was seriously injured.

Blixt is in Jamestown General Hospital where his condition is reported as only fair. He suffered nine broken ribs and a back injury when he was thrown to the pavement after his car was struck by the local vehicle.

Watmuff was arraigned before City Judge Allan A. Baerger in Jamestown this morning, charged with drunken driving, leaving the scene of an accident, driving through a red light and driving without an operator's license. Judge Baerger set bail of $150 each for the first two counts and $25 each on the latter two. In default of bail, Watmuff was remanded to the Jamestown City jail to await hearing.

Reist, who has been released from Jamestown General Hospital, is being held by Jamestown police for judgment of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund, of Warren. He suffered a deep cut over the right eye and injuries to his nose.

According to Jamestown authorities, the accident occurred about noon yesterday. Patrolman George Arnold, of the Jamestown police, noted a car on Fairmont avenue driving at a high rate of speed when he saw it cut across the street and chase him. A few minutes later, he was sent to the scene of the accident to investigate. A bus driver gave the license number of the hit-run vehicle.

Survey Of Current Events Made Here

Nathan Brown, one of three New York City public school instructors engaged in making a country-wide survey of techniques being used by schools in presenting current affairs to their students, paid a visit to Warren borough schools on Thursday.

The teaching trio is operating under a fellowship plan set up by the New York Times in cooperation with the city's board of education. The survey covers a one-year period and to include schools in the elementary, junior high and senior high levels.

The scope of the study will include consideration of ten major points, among which will be: Curriculum goals in giving young people an understanding of life in their own community, the state, nation and world; the latest contemporary content and materials in the curriculum of the school system; what sources and materials do school teachers use; what techniques have teachers found most successful; how shall controversial issues be handled; how can the study of contemporary affairs be integrated with history and civics, and what kind of training should teachers have to improve their own teaching of current events.

Sponsors of the project feel that because of the tremendous importance of this field, this survey may be a start toward revising elementary and high school curricula to give more attention to current materials in the classroom.

Interested over WNAE by Program Director, LeRoy Schuchman, during the day, Brown said Warren was selected as one of the school systems to be included in the survey on the basis of school board's reply to a preliminary letter sent out by the New York Times—board of education committee.

In discussing the program with Dr. Carl E. Huppel, assistant superintendent of schools, the visitor stated there are three different techniques found most successful in presenting current affairs to pupils and in Warren schools he has found all three in use.

A Child Is Born - Feb. 12, 1809

The little valley of Nolin's Creek, a couple of miles from Hodgenville, Ky., looks much the same today as it did on the morning of February 12, 1809. A road winds up beside the creek, hills rise on either hand. But there is a marble monument today shielding the log cabin which on that morning stood alone on a hillside by a spring.

It was late in the morning of that day in 1809 that Tom Lincoln built up the fire in the snick-dry chimney, wrapped a bearskin about his wife, Nancy Hanks, and trudged two miles up the road to the nearest neighbors. "Nancy's got a boy baby," he announced hesitantly in his slow, quiet voice.

They named him Abraham.

—Willis Thornton, in "Almanac for Americans."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The life of Abraham Lincoln has provoked more incredulous, baffled speculation than that of any other American. It began in his own lifetime, and it will continue far beyond the present day.

The attempts of Lincoln's contemporaries to explain him were colored by their own feelings, which ranged from worshipful sentimentality to bitter hatred and lofty contempt. They saw him through the burning issues that surrounded him. Today the ashes of those issues are cold. The bitter hatred is gone. The admiration, though perhaps more sincere, is also more temperate.

But the unanswered question remains: How could the arrive at so lofty a destination from so lowly a starting point?

Genius, even of a special kind, defies analysis. So the genius that marked Lincoln's whole life—the unerring instinct, the rightness of judgment, the incomparable gift of expression—is doubly mystifying against the background in which it developed. How could a stark environment of poverty, illiteracy, rough manners and rougher language have produced so great and complex a man?

Countless hours of study and hundreds of thousands of words have been devoted to that question. And while the definite answer remains elusive, the attempts to find it have helped to affirm and strengthen our concept of government.

Lincoln's predecessors in the presidency had been either military heroes or noted statesmen or career politicians. Lincoln broke the precedent. He was an unknown from the back woods. His brief, unspectacular service in the House of Representatives had no degree from an Eastern college. To many of his countrymen he was simply an uncouth frontiersman. And he was resented personally as well as politically, by the "Southern aristocracy" and many proper New Englanders.

Yet Lincoln demonstrated that the road could lead "from log cabin to White House." That route was later tramped hard by the thumping clichés of political orators. But in 1860 there were many who doubted that a man could set out upon it and reach the end with no more spectacular equipment than intelligence and integrity.

There have been no Lincolns among the others who since have traveled the same road from a humble starting point. But in another Lincoln should arise, the road is still open.

The example of Abraham Lincoln and his supporters remains strong today in a world haunted by super-statism. We live in a country where an uncommon man may achieve leadership of the common people by force, but by the free choice of fellow citizens who recognize in him a neighbor and a kindred spirit.

WNAE Files Application For Full-time Operating License

The Federal Communications Commission today announced that Warren Radio Station WNAE has filed an application to increase their day-time operation license to a full-time operating permit.

Given a file number, this application now must wait its turn for action by the commission.

The request by WNAE for full-time operation will mean, if granted, the local station will operate on its present 100 watts daytime and lower power at night. The power reduction will in no way affect the local reception, although areas in the outer reaches of WNAE's daytime service will not be able to receive the station at night.

SENTENCE IS GIVEN PRISON SECRETARY

Moundsville, W. Va., Feb. 11.—(AP)—Rebecca Yost, former financial secretary at the Moundsville State Penitentiary, today started serving a one to 10-year sentence on charges she falsified accounts.

After Miss Yost pleaded guilty yesterday before Circuit Judge Lloyd Arnold, she was sentenced to the State Prison for Women at Pence Springs. Nine other charges, including falsification and embezzlement of more than $4,000, were dismissed.

WORKMAN KILLED

New Castle, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Joseph P. Keller, 60, of New Castle, was killed and a fellow worker injured today in an accident at the Pennsylvania Engineering Corporation, Keller and Thomas Myers, also of New Castle, were fitting the lower half of an 18-ton converter casing to the upper half when the lower half suddenly dropped on the men. Keller struck on the head, died of a broken neck. Myers suffered hip injuries and was taken to Jameson Memorial Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA HARD HIT BY TRANSIT TIEUP

Peace Negotiations Between Company and CIO Transport Workers Deadlocked

NATION'S THIRD CITY

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Deboured by a strike of transit workers, Philadelphia's 5,200,000 bus, subway and trolley riders scrambled into the city today on foot by thumb-hugging or passing cars and by fighting their way aboard the sardine-packed suburban railway trains.

The massive operations of the Philadelphia Transportation Company ground to a halt at one minute past midnight, throwing workers in the nation's third largest city to their own resources.

The strike of 11,000 members of the CIO's Transport Workers Union was in support of a demand for a fourth round wage increase. The work stoppage was orderly and PTC officials said the company will make no attempt to operate over its 1,500 miles of lines.

Many workers were late. Some, hampered by a four-inch snowfall that piled into drifts in suburban areas, never got to their jobs.

Much of the load shifted to suburban trains of the Pennsylvania and Reading railroads. Police stood guard at stations, pushing puffing-eyed passengers up the steps and barking with monotonous regularity: "Move into the things moving."

Broad Street Suburban Station, the PTC's terminal point at City Hall, looked like New York's Times Square on New Year's eve. Concourses leading from the trains were lined from wall to wall by shoving, often laughing, workers.

Some trains were too jammed to take on all those clamoring to get aboard. Workers waited for (Turn to Page Nine)

REMINGTON GIVEN JOB IN COMMERCE DEPT.

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—William W. Remington received a new assignment today when he returned to work at the commerce department after being cleared of disloyalty charges.

The new job, Remington's boss said, does "not involve the dramatic issue of national security." The salary will be the same, $10,230 a year.

Remington, 31-year-old economist, was suspended last June after his name was brought into congressional spy hearings. At that time, he was director of the department's export program which included decisions on what could be shipped to Russia and other countries in the Soviet sphere.

Francis E. McIntyre, assistant director of the department's office of international trade and Remington's immediate superior, said Remington's new assignment will deal with general imports into this country.

This task, McIntyre explained to a reporter, "covers important work, worthy of his ability, but does not involve the dramatic issue of national security."

T-MEN SCORE HIGH ON TAX CONVICTIONS

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau claimed a record today of 96 convictions for each 100 persons tried for criminal evasion of tax laws.

The bureau said only 17 persons were acquitted out of 228 put on trial during fiscal 1948, ended last June 30.

Extra-tax, interest and penalty assessments imposed in that period as a result of investigations of income and excess profits tax returns reached a record high of $1,462,624,000, the bureau's annual report showed.

NAVY OFFICER HURT IN CRASH OF PLANE

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Lieut. Commander J. M. Abuckley of State College, Pa., suffered severe injuries in the crash of a four-engine private plane near the Patuxent, Md., naval base yesterday.

Two navy enlisted men were killed and five others, in addition to Abuckley, were injured.

The plane apparently developed engine trouble, the Navy said, as it was returning to Patuxent from Quonset Point, R. I.

The Navy said the dead were: M. E. Kennedy, Topeka, Kans., and E. H. Perry, Martinsburg, Va.

ALABAMA PRISON FIRE LEVELS CELL BLOCKS

Atmore, Ala., Feb. 11.—(AP)—Fire destroyed six cell blocks, dining rooms and offices at Atmore state prison farm today.

No one was injured. A preliminary check indicated none of the prisoners escaped.

The fire broke out in the loft of a long, wooden building, erected 20 years ago.

A guard, C. W. Drinkard, called the night warden, C. W. Hood, and the two led the prisoners to a wire enclosed yard. Drinkard said the prisoners, carrying clothing and bedding, left the burning building in orderly fashion.

Nine Airlines Join In Fight Against Gasoline Tax Hike

Harrisburg, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's oil industry today gained the support of nine airlines in the fight against a proposed one-cent a gallon boost in the commonwealth's gasoline tax.

"The proposed liquid fuel tax increase, although limited to one cent per gallon, becomes prohibitive when added to already existing costs borne by the airlines," Warren L. Pierson, chairman of the board of Trans World Airlines, said in a statement for the nine concerns.

However, Rep. Charles H. Brunner, Jr., Republican House leader, was quick to reply "They should know better" when he was informed of the airlines' stand.

Brunner pointed out that Pennsylvania's constitution provides that all receipts of taxes on aviation gasoline be earmarked for aeronautical purposes. It is used by the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission for administrative purposes and to build and maintain aviation facilities.

In opposing the increase, Pierson said "all of Pennsylvania's bordering states recognize that aviation fuel should not be taxed."

He added that the airlines now pay activity fees for the use of public airports, rental for airport building space, hangars and storage as well as special charges for other services.

James H. Duff's budget listed $225,000 in aviation fuel taxes in the current two years. He estimated that there would be $800,000 available in the next two years without an increase in the present four-cent tax. Tax receipts from aviation gasoline totaled more than $25,000 in January.

Pierson said the airlines joining in his statement were all American Airlines, American Airlines, Capital Airlines, Colonial Airlines, Eastern Airlines, Northwest Airlines, Trans World Airline and United Airlines.

All are certified to operate in Pennsylvania.

Committee Places Social Security At Top Of List

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The House ways and means committee today put tax legislation aside at least temporarily, in the face of the new tax-raising plea from President Truman.

The committee voted to give first consideration to the President's proposals for a vast expansion of the Social Security program. Hearings were ordered beginning Feb. 28.

This might mean that no tax bill will be considered until May. A committee spokesman explained, however, that today's action does not mean the committee cannot take up a tax bill any time it pleases.

Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.) of the Ways and Means Committee already had forecast that the social security program would come first. In general the capital reception given Mr. Truman's call for quick action on a $4,000,000,000 tax boost was chilly.

It apparently is generally agreed that a $4,000,000,000 tax increase would be defeated quickly if brought to a vote at this time.

But if appropriations for the next fiscal year exceed anticipated revenue under present tax statutes a tax increase would have a much better chance. Some committee men are more opposed to the tax-raising operating in the red than they are to a tax increase.

Doughton, for instance, has taken the stand that tax legislation should wait until there are figures on government spending.

The ways and means committee decided to take up first the administration proposals for increased Social Security assistance to the needy aged, the blind, and dependent children.

Under this program the federal government makes direct grants to the states for payments to these needy persons. The states also contribute to this fund.

Next the committee will consider Mr. Truman's proposal that some 20,000,000 persons be added to the 20,000,000 now protected by old age and survivors' insurance, and for at least a 50 percent increase in the benefits under this insurance program. Participants and their employers pay special payroll taxes to support this program.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Communist-governed Bulgaria is going to put 15 Protestant ministers and officials on trial soon on charges of treason, violating currency laws and spying for Britain and the United States.

Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir Topencharov said the churchmen already had "full confessed" to the spy charges.

The government announced the names of those arrested for the first time last night disclosed the indictment and named 12 American and British churchmen, educators and officials who it said acted as "contacts" in the spying activities.

As early as Jan. 8, Dimitur Iliev, director of cults, had disclosed that "some" Protestant clergymen were under arrest.

(In New York an official of the Northern Baptist convention, President Truman's denunciation, said the charges were a "terrible thing" and bracketed them with the treason trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, as part of a Communist "persecution of all religious Protestants, Catholics or Jews.")

(The last church census in 1934 listed 8,371 Protestants in Bulgaria, compared to 5,000,000 members in the Greek Orthodox church, the national faith.)

The fifteen indicted are leaders of the United Evangelical church. Represented in the church are the Methodist, Baptist, Pentecost and Congregational faiths.

Vassil Zlatkov, head of the Congregational church in Bulgaria and religious representative of the United Evangelical church, was alleged to be the "heart" of the treasonable activities.

Others indicted included: Yanko Ivanov, his deputy and supervisor of Methodist churches in Bulgaria; Nikola Mihailov, head of the Baptists; Georgi Chernov, head of the Pentecost church.

The four named are members of the Supreme Council of the United Evangelical church in Bulgaria.

The other eleven are Protestant ministers.

In addition, Topencharov said two or three more trials of Protestants will be held in the provinces. He did not say how many would be tried.

The indictment named 12 Americans and Englishmen as "organs of foreign intelligence and representatives of international reaction" who visited Bulgaria at various times since 1944 and contacted the 15 accused either directly or indirectly. These were:

Cyril Black, professor of Russian History at Princeton University, who has been an advisor to the U. S. delegation in the United Nations Balkans Commission.

John Evans Horner, former acting U. S. political representative at Sofia.

Louis Beck, present U. S. commercial representative here.

Dr. J. Hutchison Jackson, director of reconstruction and inter-church aid of the World Council of Churches, former moderator of the Church of Scotland.

Bishop Paul Garber, of Geneva, Switzerland, Methodist bishop of 11 European nations and former U. S. political representative at Sofia.

Louis Beck, present U. S. commercial representative here.

Dr. J. Hutchison Jackson, director of reconstruction and inter-church aid of the World Council of Churches, former moderator of the Church of Scotland.

Bishop Paul Garber, of Geneva, Switzerland, Methodist bishop of 11 European nations and former U. S. political representative at Sofia.

Whittaker Chambers, who says he was a onetime courier for a Red spy ring in America, told the House Un-American Activities committee last year he helped obtain recruits and money for an "apparatus" in Japan in the mid-30's.

And one person Chambers says was in contact with the leaders of that apparatus is mentioned in a report the Army released yesterday. The report told of a big Soviet espionage ring in Tokyo that operated from 1935 to 1941 and stole secrets from the Japanese cabinet and German embassy.

There is nothing in the Chambers' testimony to show any definite or close connection between the American ring he served and the network described by the Army as probably the all-time boldest and best.

The committee wasn't looking for any such tie when it heard Chambers behind locked doors last December. It may look now.

Army and Navy intelligence officers were invited to sit in on a meeting this afternoon. The main purpose was to discuss ways of improving teamwork between the services and the committee.

HOUSEWIFE IS KILLED IN FALL FROM CHAIR

Pittsburgh, Feb. 11.—(AP)—A housewife fell off a chair and was killed, but a workman suffered only minor hurts in a five floor plunge yesterday.

The housewife was Mrs. Carl J. Anderson, 58, who fell while standing on a wall shelf in her home in suburban Clairton. The workman, Roy A. Smith, 23, fell down the shaft of an elevator he was repairing.

He told police he left his grocery yesterday with a beer distributor in business that started in December. It may look now.

Army and Navy intelligence officers were invited to sit in on a meeting this afternoon. The main purpose was to discuss ways of improving teamwork between the services and the committee.

Creation of New State School Building Authority Proposed

Harrisburg, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The creation of new state public school building authority, with four full-time members, comes up for a final vote next week in the state senate.

The new authority would replace the present one composed of the governor, the superintendent of public instruction, the secretary of property and supplies, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the speaker of the state house of representatives, who serve without additional compensation.

Under the new measure, as sponsored by Sen. Frederick L. Homsher (R-Lancaster) and Paul L. Wagner (R-Schuylkill), would set up an authority composed of the state superintendent of public instruction and four appointees of the governor.

The members appointed by the governor would each receive $5,000 a year with the chairman getting an additional $500. The original function of a school building

The next regular meeting of the local chapter is slated for February 24, with a supper at six o'clock and business meeting at seven.

Father-Son Event At Grace Methodist

Men and boys of Grace Methodist church gathered in the church dining room for the annual father-son banquet sponsored by the McCurdy Men's Club, this evening.

After a dinner served by the Ladies' Society and group singing, led by Junior Summers, Toastmaster, Elmer Carlson paid tribute to the committee responsible for the success of the affair and introduced the entertainment.

A quartet of high school boys delighted their audience with several selections, after which Rev. Sherman H. Epler, of Kane, put on his very entertaining show of fun and magic and, with the assistance of some of the fathers and sons, completely mystified those present with his excellent magic and funny stunts.

In Unions There Is Strength

At the latest count, there were about 16,210,000 members of United States labor unions. The 18 largest account for more than half the total membership. Of these, eight are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, five with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, two are independent and one—the Trainmen—is part of the Railway Brotherhoods. The AFL claims 7,220,500 members, the CIO 6,500,000, another 2,050,000 belong to independent unions, and 440,100 to the Railway Brotherhoods. Figures from the National Industrial Conference Board.

Warren Schoolmen Are In Titusville

John G. Rossman, superintendent of Warren public schools, and Joseph Passaro, member of the commercial department and one of the guidance counselors at the high school, are working on the educational committee in Titusville this week as representatives of Warren High School's membership in the Association of Secondary Schools in the Middle States.

The committee, after visiting classes of the Titusville High School Wednesday, Thursday and today, will check and comment on the school's achievements and recommend any needed improvements.

After an evaluating committee had visited Warren High School in 1948, the guidance department and the school library were added to give local students greater educational opportunities.

Membership in the association is optional. In Pennsylvania, 200 schools belong to the organization, and committees evaluate the member-schools once every ten years.

Scouts To Attend Impressive Ritual

Richard Rutledge and Richard Updegraff, Warren Eagle Scouts, left this morning for Gettysburg to take part in the state ceremony to launch the 40th Anniversary Crusade of the Boy Scouts of America.

The two Scouts were chosen by the advancement committee as representatives of the Warren County Scouts because of their good record as scouts and as Senior Patrol Leaders in their Troops.

Rutledge is a member of the Trinity Memorial Church Troop 1 and Updegraff is with the First Methodist Church Troop 9.

This evening Commissioner C. A. Babcock and Scoutmaster James Keller also will leave to join the Scouts in Gettysburg.

The ceremonies will take place at the Eternal Peace Light on the Gettysburg Battlefield, a memorial dedicated to peace and liberty.

Governor Duff will participate in the state ceremonies and the Warren Scouts will bring the light home and take part in the local ceremony which will be held in conjunction with the Merit Badge Exposition on Saturday, February 19, at the State Armory.

Democrats' Man

William M. Boyle, Jr., above, has been named executive vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee. He will handle the administrative detail of running the committee's Washington office, spelling chairman J. Howard McGrath, a Rhode Island senator. McGrath says the appointment has President Truman's "heartly approval." Boyle was formerly police director of Kansas City, Mo.

"THE THREE MUSKETEERS" In Technicolor AT THE LIBRARY THEATRE TODAY THRU TUESDAY

With Lana Turner, Gene Kelly, June Allyson, Van Heflin and Angela Lansbury at the head of one of M-G-M's biggest "name" casts, "The Three Musketeers" opens today thru Tuesday at the Library Theatre to present a breathtaking pageantry of Technicolor spectacle, fiery romance and dare-devil adventure.

Here are the ingredients of non-stop picture entertainment at its best—flashing swords, dashing heroes, beautiful women, explosive drama and thrilling suspense in Alexandre Dumas' unforgettable story of the adventurous musketeers whose motto was "One For All and All For One!"

M-G-M's star roster for the colorful roles in this action masterpiece, and each player fits his part like a glove. Lana Turner gives terrific impact to her role of the Countess de Winter who, as a pawn in the hands of the scheming Richelieu, sets out to ruin the careers of the three musketeers as well as to de-throne the King of France. Gene Kelly is the swash-buckling D'Artagnan, who duels to protect his King, rides across France to save the honor of his Queen, and crosses the English Channel to rescue the lovely Constance, the latter played with warmth and sympathy by June Allyson. Van Heflin gives a spirited portrayal of the romantic Athos, Angela Lansbury is every inch the French Queen, and fine supporting work is offered by Frank Morgan as the weakling Louis XIII, Vincent Price as the sinister Richelieu, Keenan Wynn as the ubiquitous Planchet, John Sutton as the Duke of Buckingham and Gig Young as Porthos.

The picture has been given breath-taking pace and spectacle in the hands of Director George Sidney and Producer Pandro S. Eberman, and emerges as one of the outstanding adventure films of this or any other year. Leo the Lion may take another bow.

Occupational accidents in the United States killed 16,500 persons and injured 2,050,000 others during 1946.

The Nicest Distance Between Two Points

White sidewall tires available at additional cost.

To ride in a Cadillac is to experience the supreme satisfaction that can be derived from personal transportation. The person at the wheel is the quickest to sense this—for he is the special beneficiary of Cadillac comfort. He enjoys, of course—in common with the other occupants of the car—the matchless benefits of Cadillac balance and springing and roadability. But he enjoys, in addition, the driving ease of a feather-light steering wheel; a quick, powerful, responsive motor that knows no counterpart for agility and smoothness; big, dominant brakes that are as soft to the pedal as sponge rubber; and an overall sure-footedness on the highway that reduces driving strain to the minimum. Somebody has said that, once you have driven a Cadillac, you're unhappy at the wheel of any other car. Certain it is that a ride in a Cadillac—whether as driver or passenger—is the nicest distance between two points! Have you driven a 1949 Cadillac—or ridden in one? If not, you ought to do so. You are welcome in our showrooms at any time.

SADDLER IS UNDERDOG FOR BOUT WITH PEP

New York, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Sandy Saddler, a vicious knockout winner over Willie Pep last October, is a surprising underdog in tonight's Madison Square Garden rematch, the first defense of his world featherweight title. The first Garden sellout crowd since Rocky Graziano fought Marjory Servo in 1946, more than 18,500 will watch slim Sandy from Harlem try to prove it was no mistake when he flattened Pep in 2:38 of the fourth last Oct. 26. The plot here is Saddler, probably by a knockout, in less than the 15-round limit. Pep's loyal Connecticut clients are responsible for the sellout with at least 6,000 from Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport coming to town with cash to back their opinions. They can't believe that Pep, beaten only once in 135 fights before he met Sandy, was whipped by such a Johnny-Come-Lately.

At 26, Pep is fighting for his fistic life as a beaten champ. His brilliant record will be obscured by another loss to Sandy, a spindly-legged negro with the left-handed punching power of a welterweight. If Pep loses they'll label him "all washed up." An electric refrigerator has 1397 separate parts. Wichita, Kans., has a resident named Mr. Orange Marmalade Lemon.

Other zone marks are to be placed later when regulations are passed setting definite locations.

Good Game Season Reported By Pennsylvania Commission

Harrisburg, Feb. 10—A preliminary statewide survey of the 1948 hunting season, released by the Pennsylvania Game Commission, indicates that Keystone State hunters met with greater success on wild turkeys, ringneck pheasants, raccoons, woodcocks, waterfowl and woodchucks, than they did in 1947 but kill records on all other species were below those of the previous season.

The 1948 small game kill, based on Field Officers' estimates, included 1,781,350 cottontail rabbits (1947—1,829,843); 584,875 squirrels (1947—655,787); 4,518 wild turkeys (1947—3,751); 277,254 ringneck pheasants (1947—220,814); 59,242 raccoons (1947—91,912); 24,297 ruffed grouse (1947—29,922); 5,700 bobwhite quail (1947—8,360); 43 Hungarian partridges (1947—98); 26,210 woodcocks (1947—20,263); 40,352 waterfowl (1947—35,914); 3,980 shorebirds (1947—4,061); 6,847 mourning doves (1947—6,568); and 259,534 woodchucks (1947—234,017). The bag of wild turkeys was the largest since 1940 when 5,218 were taken.

According to present tabulations of individual reports (not yet complete) filed by successful bear hunters, a total of 281 bears were bagged in the five-day season last November. In 1947 hunters established a six-year kill record in bagging 369 bears.

Game officials figures on the 1948 deer kill, based on individual reports so far mailed into the Harrisburg office indicate that about 30,000 legal bucks were killed in the two-week open season last December. In addition, field officers estimate that 4,500 deer were illegally killed by hunters in 1948 and 3,700 were either accidentally killed by automobiles, trains, and other mechanical means or were intentionally killed for crop damage. The 1947 deer killed totaled 31,475 legal bucks and 63,568 legal antlerless deer in statewide seasons.

Game officials pointed out that deer hunting in wooded areas adjacent to agricultural regions of the State last year produced a larger kill than previously and that deer in such areas were heavier and carried larger racks of antlers. They stated that this is an indication of scarcity of food in

Another Leader Training Session For Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout Little House was the scene of a large gathering of leaders Wednesday evening for a training session. Mrs. Carl McDonald, training chairman last year, introduced Mrs. F. L. Abendroth, the chairman elected at the annual meeting, who will carry on the program started last year.

Mrs. Abendroth introduced Mrs. Helen Rounds, of Youngsville, who was guest consultant for the evening on music in Girl Scout troops. Mrs. Rounds spoke briefly on the importance of good music in Scout activities and not only taught some of the favorite numbers in troops, but gave instructions on how to teach a new song.

A series of cards was explained by Mrs. Harold Stohl, showing the set-up of the national organization into regions, the regions into sections, and the sections into councils.

Section I of Region III of which the Warren Council is a part. The chart also depicted the break-down of the local Council into its neighborhood groups and indicated the number of troops in the various neighborhoods.

A second chart showed the seven steps in becoming a Girl Scout.

which was of interest to not only the Brownie leaders with girls who will be flying up into the Girl Scout troops, but to the Girl Scout leaders who have girls who were not Brownies.

A third chart "The Tree of Scouting" showed the history of the organization from the founding of the Boy Scouts by Lord Baden-Powell in England by the World Chief Guide and Lady Baden-Powell; the beginning of Girl Scouting in the United States through the interest of Juliette Low in 1912; the establishment of a national training camp, Edith Macy, for adults in 1926; and the international encampment, "Our Chateau," which was erected for the use of Girl Scouts throughout the world.

The evening ended by more songs led by Mrs. Rounds.

Those attending were: From North Warren, Mrs. Lorraine Belz, Mrs. Robert Christensen and Mrs. Myron Jewell; from Youngsville, the Misses Edith and Betty Husted and Mrs. Edith Barton; from Irvine, Miss Charlotte Sandberg; from Russell, Mrs. Lillian Brasington and Mrs. Viola Fox; from Starbuck, Mrs. Olive McIntosh, Mrs. Grace Berry and Mrs. Adah Sidon; from Pleasant Township, Mrs. Pauline Rapp; from Warren—Conewago Neighborhood, Mrs. Karl Timm and Mrs. Lee Emsworth; the Lacy Neighborhood, Mrs. Betty Archibald; for Allegheny Central, Mrs. Grace Aberg, Mrs. Marcel Egniet, Mrs. Louise Warner, Mrs. G. W. Fee, Mrs. A. Chapman, Mrs. G. Jones and Mrs. H. G. Stohl; from Allegheny East, Mrs. Carl McDonald; from Allegheny West, Mrs. A. Bova, Mrs. Thomas James, Mrs. W. Nero, Mrs. Lawrence Carlson, and Mrs. August Swick, and Miss Barbara Bova.

Mrs. Ralph Van Ord, president of the council, Mrs. A. J. Weiler, organization chairman, Mrs. F. L. Abendroth, training chairman, and Miss Cecelia White, general secretary, were also present.

TIDIOUTE UNION

WCTU members of Tidoute held their regular meeting in the Methodist church of that place, with a six o'clock tureen dinner and program. The delicious dinner was served by Mrs. Florence Johnson and her committee at four tables which seated some 50 members and guests. Rev. Hugh Stevenson gave an inspiring devotional period, with prayer, scripture and song.

Mrs. Clara Merkle, superintendent of visual education, was in charge of the program, with a Memorial Tribute to Frances Willard given by Mrs. Frank Kapp. The importance of visual education was stressed by Mrs. Merkle and three of the county WCTU slide films were shown on the screen by Mr. Barr.

In the business session which followed, five Sunshine Baskets for shut-ins were reported by the flower mission head, Mrs. John Lawson. It was announced a soldiers' and sailors' box is to be packed at the March meeting, with 100 Gospels of John and special emphasis on the comfort bags to be made for blind veterans. Several new members were added and the meeting was concluded with prayer by the president, Mrs. Kapp.

DAR Chapter Enjoys Dinner-Program For Delightful Birthday Observance

More than 30 members and guests of General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gathered in the YWCA activities building at six o'clock last evening for the chapter's annual birthday party.

The long table was attractively set with tall white candles in crystal holders, crystal bowls of spring flowers and nursery rhyme candy baskets.

The chaplain, Mrs. Jessie Swain Girling, gave the invocation which prefaced the serving. At the close of dinner, the regent, Mrs. F. L. Plummer extended a welcome and read several interesting excerpts from the DAR Magazine.

The remainder of the program was given in the parlors, with Mrs. W. G. Cable as program leader. Mrs. Marshall E. Morrow amused and entertained with a monolog, "Rocking Chairs", and was called back for an encore, "At the Movies".

Principal speaker was Miss Matilda Steinhoff, of the high school faculty, who took her audience on an imaginary journey "Down Mexico Way". Her talk was made doubly interesting by the large collection of handcraft articles which she brought with her and explained to the group.

In a brief business session which preceded the dinner, Mrs. Plummer presided and Mrs. Girling conducted the opening ritual.

Mrs. Warren R. Carling, who is state chaplain of the DAR and a past regent of the local chapter, was elected delegate, with the president, to the continental congress session in Washington, D. C., next April. Alternates were Miss Minnie Shawkey and Mrs. C. L. Thompson.

College Club Has Fine Book Review

The February meeting of the Warren Association of College Women was held at the YWCA activities building Wednesday evening.

During the business session, conducted by the president, Dorothy B. Newell, the treasurer's report was presented by Miss Edna Glasser, the student loan, by Mrs. Melvin Koller, and the program, by Miss Guinevere Knapp.

The meeting was then turned over to the chairman, Miss Cecilia Burch, who presented Mrs. H. R. Lewis, the speaker for the evening. Mrs. Lewis reviewed Alan Paton's "Cry the Beloved Country," described as "a prose poem and a parable," and a story of South Africa. In her mimetic manner, she presented the characters and plot of the book with a sympathetic understanding which held the constant attention of her audience.

Mrs. Donald McComas was the hostess chairman for the social hour which followed, with Miss Edna Glasser and Mrs. A. F. Kottcamp presiding at the tea table.

The following served on the social committee: Mrs. Jack Kerins, Mrs. James Waite, Miss Anna Snyder, Mrs. A. F. Kottcamp, Miss Christine Hurd, Miss Edna Glasser, Mrs. Paul Coe, Mrs. B. W. Knapp and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Jr.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 7th, when Carroll Fowler will present his High School a Capella Choir.

RARE GERONDOLES ARE VALUABLE ANTIQUES

Harrisburg—If you have a pair of "gerondoles" around the house hang on to them until an antique dealer comes around and hands you a fancy price.

When Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livingston, Jr., ran across "two pair of gerondoles" listed in a bill of sale dated 1799 among records in the Land Office of the Department he was puzzled and curious.

One of the State Historical and Museum Commission, the Commission advised him that a "gerondole" is a convex mirror in a richly ornamented frame with two or more sconces (candle-holders) attached thereto. They were formerly used only in richly furnished rooms and are now very rare.

Indeed, the museum doesn't have one and would like very much to have a specimen.

For those interested in the furnishings of a "front parlor" in 1799, the bill of sale offers this information: Eight mahogany chairs, one looking glass, two gerondoles, one harpsicord, 2 card tables, one "sofa", six gilt framed pictures, one pair anourens, one pair tongs and shovel, one fender, one carpet.

All-State Orchestra Festival Under Way

Greensburg, Feb. 11—(P)—The all state high school orchestra today moved toward its two big events—full-dress concerts to-night and tomorrow night.

The festival is sponsored each year by the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

About 175 students from all parts of the state are taking part in the rehearsals. They will be guests at a dance after the concert tonight and a theatre party tomorrow afternoon. The educators will hold their annual dinner tomorrow night.

(Two Warren High School students are members of the All-State Orchestra. They are Elizabeth Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dunham, 20 East St. Clair street, who will play first flute; and Tom Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cannon, 3 West street, who will play second violin.)

Capt. Chester E. Whiting, commanding officer of the U. S. army ground forces band, is guest conductor and is directing rehearsals.

Victor Dausek of Pittsburgh conducted a woodwind clinic today for about 75 high school music instructors. A string clinic yesterday was in charge of Robert L. Sametini, string ensemble director of the Duquesne University music school.

The festival is the first event in Greensburg's year long celebration of the 150th anniversary of its founding.

State Loses Rank As Apple Producer

Harrisburg — Pennsylvania in 1948 had one of the smallest commercial apple crops in years and dropped from its usual fourth place among all the states to sixth in total production, the State Department of Agriculture reports.

On the average, the Keystone State is exceeded in apple production only by Washington, New York and Virginia, in that order, Federal State records reveal. States that forged ahead of Pennsylvania this past season were California and Michigan.

Pennsylvania's apple crop for 1948 totaled 4,520,000 bushels. They averaged $2 a bushel or a total value of $9,040,000 ranking the State fourth among all states in the value of its apple crop.

The standing of Pennsylvania as an apple state is an enviable one, the Department says. Both the Smokehouse and York Imperial varieties originated in this State; the largest apple processing plant in the world is located at Biglersville, Adams County; Pennsylvania ranks first in the nation in the volume of apples graded by inspectors for processing.

In 1947 Stayman was the leading variety with 20 per cent of the production and York Imperial was second with 17 per cent. In 1948 the order was reversed with York making up 21 per cent of the total crop and Stayman only 14 per cent.

Hal Boyle Asks The Question: 'Who's Afraid of Normalcy?'

New York—(AP)—Big changes often start in small ways. The ordinary man doesn't notice them at first. But gradually he begins unconsciously to add them up. And all at once there flashes into his mind the conviction: "Something's in the wind."

And there does seem to be something new in the financial wind. The American post-war hurricane of inflation is slowing down on many fronts. And already fears are rising that the national economy will be caught in the doldrums.

Yes, the signs come in small ways.

A week ago a paper cup of carry-out coffee at the drugstore downstairs cost fifteen cents. This week it dropped to twelve cents. The price of a dish of cereal fell from twenty cents to fifteen.

A few days ago I went to a semi-annual shirt sale at one of Manhattan's men stores. Crowds of men pawed through the shirt stacks in the way only women are supposed to shop for bargains.

A five-cent cigar went on sale here and was front page news. Columbia University noted a decline in the employment of women graduates.

A prominent realty broker, looking ahead to a time when the housing shortage would be over, asked for a federal law putting a floor on rentals to protect landlords.

These are only a few of many straws showing a shift in the wind.

Even more indicative is a return of old-fashioned politeness to the customer, who used to be always right but has been wrong for several years. Shop owners are beginning ready to scurry for business again.

Recently I stopped with a friend to get a tankful of gasoline at a filling station in North Carolina. The attendant not only washed the windshield but checked the tires.

"You got a lot of dirt on the floor board," he said. And he whipped out a whisk broom and raked out the dirt. Then he got some distilled water and filled up the battery.

Little courtesy messages like this should make the average customer feel good again after his years of casual abuse. But instead they seem to disturb him somewhat.

He can read in his newspaper and see that, according to official statistics, the dollar is worth only a penny more than it was at the peak of inflation. That's all the price cuts really amount to 'til now. And a penny doesn't make much difference in itself.

The people here who now gave a nickel on their morning cereal ought to feel cheered. They've been complaining about the 20-cent price long enough. But somehow it makes them uneasy.

"What's behind it?" they ask. They like prices to go down. Every consumer does. But they have an unspoken fear that if prices go down—jobs will go down, too. And nobody wants that.

At heart the American fear is of depression rather than of inflation. This country has had some known, since Revolutionary war days, the ravages of rampant inflation on a nation-wide scale—inflation, that is, such as has swept Europe and China to expand, hate to contract. They trust growth, fear decline. Few believe the country will ever bog down again.

to the economic depths of the early 1930s. But they distrust a downslide of any kind, because nobody can always be sure of his brakes.

Who's afraid of a return to normalcy? Practically everybody.

ing Mr. Shotzberger's address, Jim Engst, boys' work secretary at the Y, will extend a few words of appreciation and Nick Mangus will explain the evening's schedule.

After dinner, served by the Lewis Catering Service, the consolation game will get under way at seven o'clock in Beaty gym.

The championship game will be at eight o'clock, when the two surviving teams will battle it out for the trophy in a match which should be packed with plenty of action and is open to all interested.

To conclude the evening, the entire conference will be entertained by the Hi-Y and Y-Teens in a dance at the YWCA activities building.

Sunday will find the boys meeting at the YMCA, after church and lunch with their hosts, for a program scheduled to begin at 2:15 p. m. After the trophy has been awarded the winning captain, Mr. Shotzberger will have a few comments on looking ahead as the Hi-Y expands a program which now has 200,000 boys in the country, representing over 9,000 different clubs.

J. R. Reddick, Hi-Y advisor of Warren, will introduce the speaker, Mr. Herbert D. Harris, principal of Beaty Junior High School, who will speak on "Communism versus High School and America."

Following this address, the Hi-Y quartet, composed of Jim Johnson, Gordon Omdark, Tim Mullhaupt and Dean Elan, will sing two selections and a highly recommended film, "Beyond Our Own," will be shown.

With this impressive film and the usual Friendship Circle of clasped hands the conference will be adjourned.

The next—and the next and the next—

Auto traffic was tremendous. Parking lot attendants reported their facilities were choked off long before the end of the morning rush hour.

Cars on Broad street jammed bumper-to-bumper, waiting as long as four blocks at traffic signals.

Many plants dispatched trucks to transport people to their jobs. Some workers found seats on benches in the trucks. But most of the men and women just hung on any way they could.

A conference called by company officials and representatives of the CIO-Transport Workers Union after the strike got under way broke up in the early morning hours but a further meeting was scheduled for 11 a. m., EST, today.

No progress was reported by either union or management, with negotiations deadlocked over a 17-cent spread.

The workers originally demanded a boost of 25 cents an hour but later reduced this to 20 cents. The company's initial offer was 10 cents, boosted to three cents shy of the strike deadline.

Workers now average from $1.09 to $1.63 an hour.

Trucking In County Is A Big Industry

Statistics released by the Research Department, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association reveal that the trucking industry of Warren County has reached substantial proportions.

The capital investment of the industry in the county has now reached the sum of $8,381,933. The industry has a total capital investment in the state of $1,457,000,000.

The trucking industry has an employment of 1,695 in Warren county, with an annual payroll of $4,238,000. Employment in the state is approximately 344,000, exceeded only by agriculture, and the annual payroll is in excess of $862,000,000.

State gasoline taxes and license fees paid for the 2,119 trucks in the county amounted to $178,212 in 1947, while special Federal taxes boosted the total to more than $217,085. One out of every three highway dollars in Pennsylvania is paid by the trucking industry.

"Trucking is Pennsylvania's most essential transportation system and its growth and stability has been due to the service delivered. Everything we eat, wear and use travels by truck," W. F. Cryssett, president, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, stated today. "It spreads its benefits to every community, benefits every citizen."

Twp. Supervisors Hold State Meet

Representing Warren County at the 27th annual state convention of township supervisors being held in Pittsburgh this week are John E. Young, of Pittsburgh, Carl Anderson, of Sheffield, and Harry Bergstrom, of Farmington. The local delegates left Wednesday morning and are expected home this evening.

Whether more or less local government is needed in Pennsylvania was an issue in the election of officers.

The present officers, all of whom seek reelection, are headed by President George J. Potts of McKean county. They are opposed by a "home rule" slate whose candidate for the presidency is R. B. Landon of Venango county.

The insurgent group declared the incumbent supported a proposed township consolidation bill. This measure would have reduced the number of townships in the state from about 1,500 to approximately 500. The legislature did not pass the measure.

At about 400 delegates present, "Local government" was the theme of most of the first day's talks.

Joe R. Thomas of Hayesville, O., president of the Ohio Association of township trustees and clerks, declared "the closer you keep to the people, the better that government is."

H. A. Thompson of Delaware county, secretary of the Pennsylvania group, spoke against the proposed consolidation of townships, declaring "the closer you keep to the people, the better that government is."

Delegates were present from every county in the commonwealth except Philadelphia, which has no townships.

Durando Followed Graziano, And Now He's the New Rock

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Bayonne, N. J., believes it has another Rocky Graziano in Ernie Durando, and the 22-year-old has just as hard as New York's east side character to whom Tony Zale loaned the middleweight wreath for a spell.

Because young Durando modeled himself after Graziano—in the ring—he also is tagged The Rock. But he did not run away and hide from the Army.

After scoring 18 knockouts in 24 outings, Durando was held even officially by Mike DeCosmo the other night before a turn-away crowd in Jersey City. Durando had him down in the fourth, but lost him, and DeCosmo, also a new face, is a tough southpaw out of Elizabeth.

Matchmaker Chickie Bogad of New York's Tournament of Champions names a score or more of new ones offhand. Perhaps this is the cycle boxing men anticipated after the war—just a little late in arriving.

Bogad lists the white heavyweights, Caesar Brion of the Argentine, Bernie Reynolds of Fairfield, Conn., and Roland La Starza, the former New York University student of the Bronx.

The middleweight woods are full of them—unbeaten Lee Sala of Donora, Pa., Rocky Castellani of Wilkes-Barre, Walter Cartier of the Fordham district in the Bronx, Don Lee of Nebraska, Joey DeJohn of Syracuse and J. T. Ross of San Jose, Calif., among them.

Vince Foster of Omaha, Joe Miceli of New York's east side and Johnny Kaufman of Rochester are rousing welters.

LIGHTWEIGHTS coming along include Ross Virgo of Rochester, Eddie Bertolino, a beautiful boxer out of Dallas and appearing in New Orleans, and Art Aragon of California.

Bogad calls Brion the finest of the young white heavyweights. Unbeaten in 13 starts and now appearing in New York, the handsome Castilian, who is half Irish, is only 21, stands six feet and weighs 188 pounds.

There was such interest in the Durando-DeCosmo neighborhood quarrel that firemen had to close the doors of the Jersey City Garden at 8:30 p. m.

Durando is a good-looking, wiry Italian with black, curly hair. He's still crude, at least a year away, as they say, but is much farther advanced than was Graziano at the same stage. He was in the Army, and has been boxing only two years, and was sidelined for eight months of that period by infected tonsils.

While rather unimpressive in his only New York appearance, Lee Sala is unbeaten in 48 consecutive matches, and a fighter has to have something to compile a string like that.

The fight game has picked up of late, and you don't have to look any farther than this new material to know why.

ANNOUNCING ANOTHER NEW "FUTURAMIC"

THE OLDSMOBILE 88

WITH "ROCKET" ENGINE

The Futuramic Fleet is now complete! The Oldsmobile "98" ... the Oldsmobile "76" ... and now the Oldsmobile "88", the newest Futuramic of them all! It's NEW in power ... with all the brilliant action, unbelievable smoothness, and gas-saving economy of Oldsmobile's high-compression "Rocket" Engine. It's NEW in styling ... with that brand new Body by Fisher whose lower, wider, roomier dimensions and greater visibility have made it an industry-wide sensation. But the Oldsmobile "88" goes further than that. It has an entirely NEW balance ... a NEW "feel" ... an indescribable something that sets it apart from any car ever built. You'll understand this when you drive the car ... and not until. So make a date with the "88." Ask your dealer to demonstrate Oldsmobile's "New Thrill!"

Hydra-Matic Drive standard equipment on Series "98" and "88" optional at extra cost on "76." White sidewall tires optional at extra cost.

There's More to An Ad Than Reading It!
Here are the necessary steps to reproducing an ad in the Times-Mirror:

1. After the Ad Man has sold the ad it must be properly laid out and scheduled.
2. It goes to the mark up man who marks the type sizes and styles on it.
3. The Linotype operators set all the machine type.
4. The printer sets the hand type.
5. The compositor puts all the pieces together. Proofs it.
6. The proof reader makes the necessary corrections.
7. The floor man sets it in the page forms.
8. The stereotyper rolls a mat of the complete page form.
9. The press room boys make a round cast of this page.
10. Put it on the press... start the press... clean out the nigger heads and sinks on this page.
11. Now the paper is ready for the circulation department... it goes either to the newsboy or the Post Office.

Here Mr. Merchant is the reason why we at the Times-Mirror must have your copy not later than 2 P. M. two days before publication...

May we have your co-operation

Thank You
The Times-Mirror 'Ad Dept.'
